

Mike Carter

OKLAHOMA SONGWRITER

ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT

ALBUM OUT JANUARY 13, 2026

A song worth singin'.

THE WRITER

Mike Carter was born in the late 1900s near Ada, Oklahoma, and raised on a river bottom in Grady County — where he found girls and guitars and started writing songs on the back porch. For years he played them to an empty room, then decided people ought to hear them. He took to the two-lane highways of Oklahoma and Texas looking for a spot to stop and play. He keeps his songs close to the bone — gritty, with a little red dirt wrinkle. Just a songwriter who sings his songs.

*“We sing major songs in minor keys
guitars grow on guitar trees and you can find a farmer’s tan
if you stay too long in MikeCarterLand.”*

LATEST ALBUM

MIKECARTERLAND · 11 SONGS · JAN 13, 2026

1. Song Worth Singin'
2. Razorblades and Rusty Nails
3. Love Is a Verb
4. MikeCarterLand
5. Somewhere South of Here
6. Salvation in a Song
7. The Right Words Never Come
8. Different Drummer
9. Raising Daughters Raising Sons
10. Brothers on the Road
11. Letters to My Son

MIKE’S HAUNTS

Hollywood Corner · Spaceship Earth ·
Yardbird · Greenwood Saloon · Bluffdale,
Texas — plus the occasional shade tree,
front porch, and campfire.

Booking: jmcarter626@gmail.com

Web: mikecarterland.com

YouTube: @MikeCarterLand

SCAN FOR MUSIC, VIDEO & BOOKING

“A shoebox full of words that rhyme and Grandpa’s old guitar.”